Learn about the life cycle and importance of the Atlantic Blue Crab from our very own PHWC gal – Barb Linkos.

The blue crab's life cycle begins with millions of microscopic eggs that eventually develop into active predators with powerful claws. Learn all about the intriguing life of the Atlantic Blue Crab and the important role they play in the coastal ecosystem and lowcountry history. Experience recreational harvesting, cooking, cleaning, and eating of the blue crab! (This is a hands-on learning experience and includes a taste of blue crab meat).

RSVP to PHWCreservations@gmail.com ASAP so that we can reserve your spot
